

Let's Practice!

What happens if ...?

Instructions: Select the correct answer.

1. If an extinct species _____ for another organism, that organism _____ at risk for extinction.
 - a. has been food, would have become
 - b. had been food, would have become
 - c. is good, would have become
 - d. had been food, will become
2. If there _____ enough plant varieties available, there _____ enough nectar for bees to survive.
 - a. is not, are not
 - b. is not, is not
 - c. are not, are not
 - d. are not, is not
3. If more research _____ into the processes involved in maintaining bee populations, we _____ kiss our sweet honey goodbye.
 - a. is not done, may have to
 - b. are not done, may have to
 - c. will be done, may have to
 - d. isn't done, may not have to

Let's Practice!

What environmental issues are important to you? Let's find out!

Instructions: Write a 150-170 word paragraph on an environmental issue facing your country. It can be related to the loss of natural habitat for animals, deforestation, population, or a particular species that is under threat.

Answers Wh- questions.

Example: What is happening? Use paragraph structure (topic sentence, supporting sentences and a concluding sentence).

Use conditional sentences starting with If ...

Remember: Include a variety of sentences (simple, compound, complex).